Clauses 4(6) to 4(10) will apply where such products will be offered by the Company*

- (1) The provision of all of our services is on a “non-advised basis” i.e. investment services other than portfolio management and investment advice.
- (2) We will offer you, on an execution-only basis, access to trading a number of instruments in the form of Contracts for Difference (“CFDs”) and Spread Bets (also referred as “Leverage Products”).
- (3) For the provision of Contracts for Difference (“CFDs”) and Spread bets we shall act as “Matched Principal” to your Transactions, except where we agree otherwise with you. Therefore, you accept that we are the only execution venue in relation to your CFD and Spread Bet trades; which means that we quote both Bid and Ask prices. We may transmit your orders for onward execution to third party liquidity providers, however contractually we are the sole counterparty to your trades and any execution is done in our name. We shall disclose any conflicts that may arise, as well as how we manage such conflicts in our Conflicts of Interest Policy.
- (4) You understand that CFDs and Spread bets are derivative products, and therefore you will not be entitled to own any underlying instrument. You also understand that no physical delivery of any underlying asset shall occur.
- (5) We will offer you direct access to the market through a registered system for trading Stocks, Options, Futures, Exchange Traded Funds, Warrants, Structured products, Fixed Income products and Mutual Funds. We will offer you these services through a Financial Intermediary the Company partners with.
- (6) Information, such as stock prices, is not real-time and the past performance results of a security or thematic portfolio available for purchase through the website is not an indication of future performance. Share prices used to value individual positions, or contribute to other performance information, are provided by third-party data providers and may not be timely and may not reflect certain activities such as corporate actions, fees and commissions. Neither the Company's nor the Financial Intermediary's website can guarantee the accuracy, timeliness or completeness of the information provided by third-party data sources of information and posted on the Company's or Financial Intermediary's website. This information should not be relied upon for making any investment or other decisions, therefore reliance on it is the Client's own risk. The Company may cause pricing, performance or other information to be unavailable with respect to a particular security or thematic portfolio from time to time if the Company determines that such information is inaccurate.

- (7) The information or content contained on or posted to the website is subject to change without prior notice.
- (8) Investing is risky, and not all investments are suitable for all investors. You agree to view the content posted on the website and/or the platform for informational purposes only. While you may be able to access market data and other financial information from the website and/or the platform, the availability of such information does not constitute a recommendation to buy or sell any of the products made available for trading (including weights and securities on each thematic area appearing in any thematic portfolio account) or to engage in any investment strategy.
- (9) Thus, neither the Company nor the Financial Intermediary the Company partners with, issue any investment advice, portfolio management, legal, financial, tax or any other advice, recommendation or opinion. Any statement, recommendation or opinion provided to any Client is not designed with respect to the individual Client's personal profile, financial situation or trading experience, and therefore should not be construed as investment advice, recommendation, opinion and/or as a solicitation for any Transactions in financial instruments. You are required to rely on your own judgement (with or without the assistance of an advisor) in entering into, or refraining from entering into Transactions. You are not entitled to ask us to provide you with investment advice relating to a Transaction or to make any statement of opinion to encourage you to open a particular Transaction.
- (10) We do not offer investment research, and any material containing market analysis is considered marketing communication and should not be constructed as advice, recommendation or research.
- (11) You will act as principal and not as agent (or trustee) on behalf of someone else. This means that you may not enter into Transactions on behalf of other parties without our express consent. If you act as an agent, we will not accept your principal as a Client unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- (12) You agree that, unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, we are under no obligation:
 - i. To satisfy ourselves as to the suitability of any Transaction for you;
 - ii. To monitor or advise you on the status of any Transaction;
 - iii. To make Margin calls; or
 - iv. Where the Applicable Regulations require – to close any Transaction that you have opened notwithstanding that we may have previously taken such similar action in relation to that Transaction or any other.

5. PROVISION OF SERVICES BY THIRD PARTIES

- (1) We may use other members of our Group or third parties in undertaking work on our behalf with respect to Services we provide in relation to this Agreement, including execution of marketing campaigns, gathering and processing of Client information, specialised software and IT services or other Client support services. Such Service Providers may be located within or outside the United Kingdom and where we choose to co-operate with them, we shall do so in accordance with the Applicable Laws and Regulations.
- (2) We shall remain always responsible to you for the Services provided in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, except in the case of a Force Majeure event, where we are responsible for the conduct of work of such Service providers in relation to the work and activities they undertake on our behalf. We shall use reputable and competent Service Providers and shall have in place adequate controls as to the selection and monitoring of the performance of the work they execute on our behalf.

- (3) We may use third parties with respect to Products and/or Services we do not provide. The Client may be introduced to such third parties and shall enter into separate Agreement with them as the Company will hold no liability and/or obligations over their business relationship.
- (4) Client acknowledges that where the Company offers the opportunity to Clients to use third party services such as investment and financial analysis and/or research tools, webinars and other educational material, in any way they deem appropriate, you accept that we carry no responsibility and no liability as to the content provided by the third party nor as to the consequences of the use of the service. Please note that neither we nor any of employees, affiliates, agents, tied agents, and/or services providers and/or Group companies provide any form of investment management, investment advice or recommendation.

6. CLIENT CATEGORISATION

- (1) According to Applicable Regulations, the Company has to categorise its Clients in one of the following categories: Retail Client, Professional Client (per se or Elective Professional) or Eligible Counterparty. The categorisation shall depend on the information provided by you during the Account Opening Application Form.
- (2) Your categorisation type will determine the level of protection at your disposal under the Applicable Laws. A 'Retail Client' is afforded with the highest regulatory protections available. We shall treat you as a Retail Client subject to the following:
 - i. If you satisfy the definition of Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty, we may notify you that we will treat you as such;
 - ii. You may request a different Client categorisation from the one we have allocated to you but be aware that we may decline such a request. If you do request a different categorisation and we agree to such a request, you may lose the protection afforded by certain FCA Rules. We will consider such requests at our discretion and after reviewing your circumstances. Should your circumstances change, you are responsible for notifying us of the change; And
 - iii. If we elect to treat you, or you request to be treated, as a Professional Client or as an Eligible Counterparty, we will provide you with full details of any limitations to the level of regulatory protection that such a different categorisation would entail.
- (3) The Client categorisation may be amended, at any time, at the Company's discretion. The Client shall be notified in writing by the Company in relation to any amendments.

7. ASSESSMENT OF APPROPRIATENESS

- (1) In order to ensure that the Client knows and understands the nature and risks of the contract products, regardless of the fact that the purchase of the financial product is always made at the Client's initiative, the Company provides its Clients with detailed information about the associated risks and assesses the Client's knowledge and experience. The latter process is known in the MiFID II Directive as 'Appropriateness Test'.
- (2) The Appropriateness Test is an integrative part of the Registration process. The purpose of the Appropriateness Test is for us to hold the means to assess whether complex products are deemed appropriate for you to invest in depending on your circumstances, including knowledge, experience and financial resources. Therefore, you are kindly requested to provide us with truthful and accurate information and to take into serious consideration any risk disclosure provided to you as a result of your assessment of appropriateness.

- (3) Notwithstanding our obligation to perform the assessment of appropriateness, this does not excuse you of the need of making your own consideration whether to trade in complex products or not. It is your responsibility to understand the risks involved with our products or services.
- (4) The Company warns that failure to provide truthful and accurate information during the assessment of Appropriateness prevents us from estimating whether the product is appropriate for you.
- (5) Stocks and bonds are non-complex products and therefore Trade Capital Markets is not obliged to perform appropriateness or suitability of those products since any future operation is done by your initiative and not by the Company.
- (6) The Company makes all warnings about the high risk of complex financial instruments:
 - i. CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage. You should consider whether you understand how CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money;
 - ii. The value of stocks, ETFs, Fixed Income products and Mutual Funds can fall as well as rise, which could mean getting back less than you originally put in;
 - iii. Options, warrants and structured products are complex financial instruments and are not suitable for all investors. Your capital is at risk;
 - iv. Futures are not suitable for all investors. The amount you may lose may be greater than your initial investment;
 - v. Security Futures are highly leveraged instruments and are not suitable for all investors;
 - vi. You should consider whether you understand the financial products you wish to invest in and whether you can afford to risk losing your invested capital. If you don't understand any product, you should seek for independent financial advice. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. The Company provides no investment advice of any kind, nor gives advice or offers any opinion with respect to the nature, potential value or suitability of any particular securities Transaction or investment strategy.

8. CLIENT MONEY

- (1) We will treat money received from you or held by us on your behalf in accordance with the applicable Client Money Rules.
- (2) Funds which you transfer to us in connection with your Account will be treated as Client money for the purposes of the Guidelines. This means that such funds will be segregated from our money and will not be used by us in the course of our business. Subject to Term 8(8) of this Section the funds will be placed into a pooled Client Money bank account at an institution as defined by the FCA CASS 7.13.3 rules.
- (3) The Company will not hold client money on your behalf in a client bank account outside the United Kingdom, unless the Company has previously disclosed to you in writing:
 - i. That Client Money may be deposited in a client bank account outside the United Kingdom, but that you may notify the Company if you do not wish your money to be held in a particular jurisdiction; and
 - ii. That in such circumstances, the legal and regulatory regime applying to the approved bank will be different from that of the United Kingdom and, in the event of a failure of the bank, your money may be treated in a different manner from that which would apply if the client money were held by a bank in the United Kingdom.
- (4) In the event that Client funds are held in a bank authorised in a third country as mentioned in 2 above, the legal and regulatory regime may differ from that applicable in the UK. In case of insolvency or equivalent failure of such bank, the treatment afforded to your Client funds may differ than the treatment afforded if you Client funds were held in a bank subject to the UK laws. We will not be held responsible for any failure or insolvency of any bank or institution holding your funds within or outside the UK.

- (5) If you have notified the Company in writing before entering into a transaction that client money is not to be held in a particular jurisdiction, the Company shall either:
 - i. Hold the client money in a client bank account in a jurisdiction to which the client has not objected;
 - ii. Return the client money to the Client.
- (6) Unless otherwise communicated by the Client, the Company holds the right to transfer in part or whole of the Initial Margin of the client to a third party such as an exchange, a clearing house or an intermediate broker to hold. The Company allows the third party to hold the funds for the purpose of one or more transactions through or with that third party or to meet the Client's obligations to provide collateral for a transaction such as an initial margin requirement for a derivative Transaction or other contingent liability investment.
- (7) If there has been no action by you in respect of movement on your Account for a period of at least six (6) years and we have been unable to contact you, we may try to return such funds to you or consider paying away allocated but unclaimed client money in line with CASS 7.11.58G.
- (8) It is not our policy to pay interest to you on any Client money that we hold on your behalf and by entering into this Agreement you acknowledge that you therefore waive any entitlement to interest under the Client Money Rules or otherwise.
- (9) We generally enter into transactions on a matched principal basis. This means that we place corresponding transactions with liquidity providers. You acknowledge and agree that we may use money received from you to meet initial margin requirements on such transactions. In such circumstances, your money will be held by the liquidity provider subject to its own client money obligations.

8.1. Deposits and Payments

- (1) You must comply with the following when making payments to us:
 - i. Payments due (including Margin payments) will, unless otherwise agreed or specified by us, be required in currencies specified by us.

 - iii. We do not accept payments from you by cash or cheque.
 - iv. In determining whether to accept payments from you under this clause, we will have utmost regard to our duties under the Law regarding the prevention of fraud and money laundering. To this end, we may at our absolute discretion, having regard to the Law, reject payments from you or a Third party or any other person other than yourself and return funds to source. In particular, we will not accept payments from a bank account if it is not evident to us that the bank account is in your name.
- (2) You should be aware of the following when you open a Transaction or deposit money into your account in a Currency other than your base Currency (i.e. the currency in which your Account with us is denominated):
 - i. It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the Currency that is designated as your base currency. Details of your base currency are available on our Electronic Trading Service.
 - ii. Some Transactions will result in profit/loss being accrued in a Currency other than your Base Currency. The Assets Section specify the Currencies in which various Transactions are denominated, or alternatively such information is available from our Client support team on request; and

- iii. Conversion fees may apply when your account currency is different than the quoted currency of the underlying asset being traded.
- (3) We reserve the right to change the way in which we manage and/or convert your non-Base Currency balances at any time in the future by providing you with ten (10) calendar days prior written notice. We will be under no obligation to remit any money to you if that would reduce your account balance (taking into account running profits and losses) to less than the Margin payments required on your open Transactions. Money standing to the credit of your account will be remitted to you if requested by you. Where you do not make such a request, we will be under no obligation to, but may, at our absolute discretion, remit such monies to you. All bank charges howsoever arising will, unless otherwise agreed, be for your account. The manner in which we remit monies to you will be at our absolute discretion, having utmost regard to our duties under the Law regarding the prevention of fraud and money laundering. We will normally remit money in the same method and to the same place from which it was received. However, in exceptional circumstances we may, at our absolute discretion, consider a suitable alternative.
- (4) You may deposit funds into your Account at any time during the course of this Agreement. Deposits will be accepted via bank transfer, debit/credit card (MasterCard, Visa) or any other method of electronic money transfer (where the originator is yourself) acceptable by the Company from time to time. The Company will not accept third party or anonymous payments in the Client Account.
- (5) We have the right not to accept funds deposited by you and/or to cancel your deposits and remit them back to you in the following:
 - i. If you fail to provide us with any documents which we request from you either for Client identification purposes or for any other reason, including with respect to verifying the source of your wealth;
 - ii. if we suspect or have concerns that the submitted documents may be false or fake;
 - iii. If we suspect you are involved in illegal or fraudulent activity or you engage in abusive trading practices;
 - iv. If we have been informed that your credit or debit card (or any other payment method used) has been lost or stolen;
 - v. Where we consider that there is a chargeback risk;
 - vi. Where we cannot identify you as an original remitter of the funds or where we are unable to return the funds to the same source of payment; and/or
 - vii. Where we do so in order, in our reasonable judgment, to comply with Applicable Laws and Regulations.
- (6) All payment and transfer charges will be borne by you and the Company shall debit the Client Account for these charges.
- (7) If you make a payment by bank transfer, by credit card or any other method of electronic money transfer, the Company shall credit the Client Account with the relevant amount within one Business Day after the amount is cleared in the bank account of the Company.

8.2. Withdrawals

- (1) Without prejudice and subject to the terms of this Agreement, all Applicable Regulations and all conditions attaching to any relevant payments made to you under an award or rebate scheme operated by us, you may withdraw funds from your Account provided that such funds are not being utilised for margin purposes or have otherwise become owed to us. Once your withdrawal request is approved, your withdrawal request will be processed by us and sent to the same bank, credit card or other source for execution on the same day that the request to withdraw funds was made, or the next working day if the Client's request is received outside of normal trading hours. (Note: Some banks and credit card companies may take time to process payments especially in currencies where a correspondent bank is involved in the Transaction).

- (2) The funds will be returned to the bank account/credit card/other source from which the funds were debited. You are fully responsible for the payment details that you provided to us and we accept no responsibility if you have provided false or inaccurate bank details. Further, withdrawals bear third party charges which may vary in accordance with the terms and conditions of the third parties. These charges may be verified upon request.
- (3) If you request a withdrawal of funds from your Account and we cannot comply with it without closing some part of your open positions, we will not comply with the request until you have closed sufficient positions to allow you to make the withdrawal. Withdrawals will only be made on request by you, by bank transfer to an account in your name or such other method as we, in our absolute discretion, may determine.
- (4) In the event that it is not possible for the funds to be withdrawn without delay, the Company, in meeting its regulatory FCA and MiFID obligations to act in the Client's Best Interest, will keep the Client informed, including about the reasons for any delay and the expected timeframe before the funds will be withdrawn. Information provided to the Client about any delays in withdrawing funds will be fair, clear and not misleading.
- (5) The Company will endeavour to process your withdrawal requests promptly, however the time needed for the requested funds to be processed and appear in your account will depend upon the method used for depositing the funds and the third parties which are executing the payments.

In these circumstances, we reserve the right to close/suspend (either temporarily or permanently) all of the Client's trading Accounts and/or cancel all Transactions.
 - (9) In view of the clause 14(7), please note that you will be strictly prohibited from opening any new trading Account(s) and trade with our Company and/or our Financial Intermediary. Any such measures as may be taken and the Applicable Regulations in force shall be binding on the Client.
- (3) Waiver of Class Actions: Any proceedings and/or arbitration under this Agreement will take place on an individual basis. The Parties agree that any claims will be adjudicated on an individual basis, and each waives the right in a class, collective, or other joint action with respect to all claims. If this clause or any portion of this clause is found to be unenforceable or invalid under the relevant laws and regulations by any administrative body or competent jurisdiction then such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement which shall remain in full force and effect.

20.1. Queries, Complaints and Disputes

- (1) Any queries should be raised with our Customer Support Department. Unresolved queries and complaints are handled by our Compliance Department according to our Complaints Handling Policy, which is available on our website(s). If you are dissatisfied with the result of our Compliance Department's investigation or with any action taken by us as a result thereof, you may be able to refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman of the United Kingdom (www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk) for further investigation.
- (2) Without prejudice to any of our other rights to close a Transaction under this Agreement, in any case where we are in dispute with you in respect of a Transaction or alleged Transaction or any communication relating to a Transaction, we may, at our absolute discretion and without notice, close any such Transaction or alleged Transaction, where we reasonably believe such action to be desirable for the purpose of limiting the maximum amount involved in the dispute, and we will not be under any obligation to you in connection with any subsequent movement in the level of the Transaction concerned. If we close one or more of your Transactions under this Term, such action will be without prejudice to our right to contend in relation to any dispute that such Transaction had already been closed by us or was never opened by you. We will take reasonable steps to inform you that we have taken such action as soon as practicable after doing so. Where we close a Transaction or alleged Transaction in accordance with this Term, the closing will be without prejudice to your rights:

- i. To seek redress or compensation for any loss or damage suffered in connection with the disputed or alleged Transaction or communication, prior to the closing; and,
- ii. To open a new Transaction at any time thereafter, provided that such Transaction is opened in accordance with this Agreement, which will be applied, for the purposes only of calculating any relevant limits or money required from you, on the basis that our view of the disputed events or communication is correct.

20.2. Financial Services Compensation Scheme

- (1) We are a participant in the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ("FSCS"), which is the compensation fund of last resort for clients of authorised Financial Services firms. It is designed by the UK government to act as a 'safety net'. Subject to certain exceptions, the FSCS provides limited compensation in respect of eligible liabilities if we are found to be in default.
- (2) If you are an eligible claimant under the rules of the FCA, your account is protected by the FSCS. If, following a default, we cannot meet our obligations, you may be entitled to compensation from the scheme depending on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. Most types of investment business are covered up to the first £85,000 per claimant. Further information about compensation arrangements is available from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme website (www.fscs.org.uk).

The Company may, without your prior consent, at any time transfer, assign or novate any of its rights, benefits or obligations under this Agreement. In addition, you will be required to understand and accept the risk involved in trading complex instruments and read and accept our Risk Disclosure document.
- (10) You understand that the verification of the identity of a Client and/or Beneficial Owner is performed before the establishment of a business relationship or the carrying out of the transaction.

23. ELECTRONIC TRADING TERMS

- (1) You represent and warrant that you are aware of all Applicable Regulations that apply to Electronic Trading Services that you use and that your use of the Electronic Trading Services will comply with all Applicable Regulations and this Agreement as amended from time to time.
- (2) We have no obligation to accept, or to execute or cancel, all or any part of a Transaction that you seek to execute or cancel through an Electronic Trading Service. Without limitation of the foregoing, we have no responsibility for transmissions that are inaccurate or not received by us, and we may execute any Transaction on the terms actually received by us.
- (3) You authorise us to act on any instruction given or appearing to be given by you in relation to any Electronic Trading Service you use (“Instruction”). We are not obliged to act on any Instruction, or to execute or otherwise enter into any particular Transaction and need not give any reasons for declining to do so. You will be responsible for the genuineness and accuracy, both as to content and form, of any Instruction received by us. You acknowledge that in the event of Manifestly Erroneous prices or volumes we will have a right to void the Transaction and such a Transaction will not be binding on us.
- (4) You acknowledge we have the right, unilaterally and with immediate effect, to suspend or terminate (at any time, with or without cause or prior notice) all or any part of any Electronic Trading Service, or your access to any Electronic Trading Service, to change the nature, composition or availability of any Electronic Trading Service, or to change the limits we set on the trading you may conduct through any Electronic Trading Service.

- (5) In accordance with Term 23(4) above, all prices shown on any Electronic Trading Service are indicative and are subject to constant change.

23.1. Access

- (1) Use of any high speed or automated mass data entry system with any Electronic Trading Service will only be permitted with our prior written consent exercised in our sole discretion.
- (2) We shall not be liable for any claims, losses, damages, costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, caused directly or indirectly, by any breakdown or failure of any transmission or communication system or computer facility belonging to us, nor for any loss, expense, cost or liability suffered or incurred by you as a result of Instructions being given, or any other communications being made, via the Internet. Some of the features available on our Online Trading Facility may not be available on our mobile feature.
- (4) You are obliged to keep your usernames and passwords secret and ensure that third parties do not obtain access to our Online Trading Facility. - (7) We and our licensors (as the case may be) will retain the intellectual property rights in all elements of the Software and such software and databases contained within the Electronic Trading Services and you will not in any circumstances, obtain title or interest in such elements other than as set out in this Agreement.

24. SECURITY, AUTHENTICITY AND ACCESS

- (1) Your account and relevant access codes which were provided to you during the registration process, shall only be used by yourself or any Authorised Persons of yours subject to the provisions regarding Authorised Persons further below.
- (2) Certain Authorised Persons, such as first-degree relatives, may be allowed to trade with our Company only in the cases where the Company provided its prior written consent given that the authorised person provided all necessary customer KYC documentation, proof of relationship and completed the assessment of appropriateness.
- (3) Authorised Persons of any Client cannot act as an authorised person for another Client. Where we deem as necessary, the Company has the right to reject any suggested Authorised Person and suspend or terminate the consent of such Authorised Person to access your Account.
- (4) You are the sole responsible person to monitor the trading activity of the Authorised persons you provided permission to access your Account. Therefore, any trading activity initiated, or orders placed by your Authorised Persons and any losses resulting from such actions are binding on you, even in cases where such persons have exceeded your authority or have acted without your permission or have otherwise acted fraudulently. In case you wish to proceed with a termination of the authorization provided by any Authorised Person you shall contact us in writing with your request.
- (5) You are obliged to keep your usernames and passwords secret and ensure that third parties do not obtain access to our Online Trading Facility. Without prejudice to any other provisions of this Agreement, you will be liable for all Transactions and/or Contracts executed by means of your Access Codes, even if such may be wrongful.

- (6) Once you notice any unauthorised access to your account, you should without any undue delay notify our Company's Customer Support Department either in writing, by phone or Live Chat. Within Business hours, upon receipt of the relevant notification the Account will be frozen immediately. Instead notifications received outside business hours, the Account will be frozen as soon as reasonably possible of receipt of your notification.
- (7) Where a suspicious unauthorised activity is detected from our side, we may, but shall not be obliged to, inform you. In situations where we reasonable suspect that a third person is using your account without your permission, we may, in our discretion, suspend access to your Account until we receive an authorization confirmation by you. We are not liable to you for any delays on detecting and subsequently suspend such access swiftly.

25. SINGLE EQUITY PRODUCTS

- (1) In some regulated equity markets, it could be difficult to take a Short Position. For instance, if the underlying equity related Financial Instrument is in short capitalization or is illiquid, or where an Exchange or regulator have prohibited short trading. For these situations we may not be able to provide a CFD or Spread Betting instrument to reflect a short position at all, or you may be charged an additional fee to open such a Short Position for you. We will advise you where possible of such additional fee in advance which will be based on the date we will become aware of such short selling exclusions.

26. LEVERAGE, MARGIN & COLLATERAL

- (1) The main feature of CFDs and Spread bets is their ability to operate on leverage. In general, high Leverage can significantly increase the potential return, but equally it can also significantly increase potential losses.
- (2) Leverage allows a Client to initiate trades of much larger nominal value without having to fund the whole amount. Instead a much smaller amount ("Margin") is used in order to initiate a trade. For example, 1:20 leverage, also known as 5% margin requirement, means $5,000 of equity is required to initiate a trade on an instrument with a nominal value of $100,000. The Margin payments required vary depending on the Leverage ratio of the CFD/Spread Bet and the underlying Financial Instrument and the contract value of the Transaction.
- (3) If you are a Retail Client, the leverage limit is set as defined by the regulatory requirements, depending on the volatility of the underlying asset. As the impact of leverage on a CFD or Spread Bet becomes higher as the value of the underlying asset of the CFD or Spread Bet is more volatile and, considered that some underlying assets are more volatile than others, setting different leverage limits is a tool to ensure you face a consistent level of risk.
- (4) Notwithstanding Term 26(3) if, following our assessment of your knowledge and experience in trading, you are classified by us as eligible to be treated as an Elective Professional Client (i.e. Experienced Client and meet the necessary criteria), as such you are entitled to trade CFDs and Spread bets with a higher leverage.
- (5) Upon opening a Transaction, you will be required to pay us the Margin for that Transaction, as calculated by us ("Initial Margin"). Note that the Initial Margin for certain Transactions will be based on a percentage of the Contract Value of the Transaction and therefore the Initial Margin due for such Transactions will fluctuate in accordance with the Contract Value. Initial Margin is due and payable to us immediately upon opening the Transaction (and for Transactions that have a fluctuating Initial Margin based on a percentage of the Contract Value, immediately on opening the Transaction and thereafter immediately on any increase in Contract Value taking place).
- (6) You also have a continuing Margin obligation to ensure that at all times during which you have open Transactions you ensure that your account balance, taking into account all realised or unrealised profits and losses ("P&L"), is equal to at least the Initial Margin for all of your open Transactions. If there is any shortfall between your account balance, taking into account P&L, and your total Initial Margin requirement, you will be required to consider the following options:

- i. If you anticipate that the market will turn back in your favour, you may deposit additional funds and/or keep your position(s) open.
 - ii. Alternatively, you may close, or you may hedge some or all of your positions.
- (7) We are not under any obligation to keep you informed of your account balance and Margin required (i.e. to make a 'Margin Call'). However, if we do so, the Margin Call may be made by telephone call, post, fax, email or text message (at the telephone number, fax number or email provided by you). The Margin Call will be deemed to have been made as soon as you are deemed to have received such notice. We will also be deemed to have made a demand on you if:
- i. We have left a message requesting you to contact us and you have not done so within a reasonable time after we have left such a message; or
 - ii. If we are unable to leave such a message and we have used reasonable endeavours to attempt to contact you by telephone but have been unable to contact you at such number. Any message that we leave for you requesting you to contact us should be regarded by you as extremely urgent unless we specify to the contrary when we leave the message. You acknowledge and accept that what constitutes a reasonable time in the context of this Term may be influenced by the state of the Underlying Market and that, according to the circumstances that could be a matter of minutes or even immediately.
- (8) It is your responsibility to notify us immediately of any change in your contact details and to provide us with alternative contact details and ensure that our calls for Margin will be met if you will be uncontactable at the contact address or telephone number notified to us (for example because you are travelling or are on holiday, or you are prevented from being in contact because of a religious holiday). The Company or any Company within the Group, will not be liable for any losses, costs, expenses or damages incurred or suffered by you as a consequence of your failure to do so.
- (9) Subject to the Applicable Laws and Regulations, we will be entitled, at any time, to increase or decrease the Margin required from you on open Transactions. You agree that, regardless of the normal way in which you and we communicate, we will be entitled to notify you of a change to Margin levels by any of the following means: telephone, post, fax, email, text message or by posting notice of the increase on our website. We will only increase Margin requirements where we reasonably consider it necessary, for example but without limitation, in response to or in anticipation of any of the following:
- i. A change in the volatility and/or liquidity in the Underlying Market or in the financial markets more generally;
 - ii. Economic news;
 - iii. A company whose Instruments represent all or part of your Transaction becoming insolvent, being suspended from trading or undertaking a Corporate Event;
 - iv. You are changing your dealing pattern with us and/or an Associated Company of ours;
 - v. Your credit circumstances are changing;
 - vi. Your exposure to us and/or an Associated Company of ours; being concentrated in a particular Underlying Market or Sector.
- (10) Where you fail to provide Margin in clear funds received by us by the time at which your Margin Level reaches 50% ("Close Out Level" or "Margin Close Out Level" or "Stop Out Level"), we have the right to begin closing out all positions in relation to the Transactions for which you have failed to provide Margin, starting from the positions which are most unprofitable for you. Where the Margin Level drops at or below 50% we will proceed with close out without further reference to you. There will be no further warning before close-out. Any such closing out under this Clause shall be performed in compliance with our duty of best execution to you, in accordance with our Order Execution Policy.

- (11) In the event where the aggregate amount payable by you is equal to the aggregate amount payable by the Company, then automatically the mutual obligations to make payment are set-off and cancel each other. If the aggregate amount payable by one party exceeds the aggregate amount payable by the other party, then the party with the larger aggregate amount shall pay the excess to the other party and all obligations to make payment will be automatically satisfied and discharged. The Company has also the right to combine all or any of your Accounts opened in your name and to consolidate the Balances in such accounts and to set-off such Balances. This Term should not violate in any case Term 27 of this Agreement, and any rights of the Clients deriving from the Negative Balance Protection.
- (12) We do not offer to either current or potential Clients' cash or other inducements to encourage them to trade complex speculative products. This reflects the duty of the Company to act honestly, fairly and professionally and in the best interests of its Clients.
- (13) If you have been classified as a Professional Client or an Eligible Counterparty, please note the provisions of Term 8(7) in relation to how Initial Margin that you pay to us will be treated.
- (14) Please note also Term 8(8) above which provides information on how we may use your Margin payments where placing back-to-back trades on a matched principle basis with liquidity providers in the market.

27. NEGATIVE BALANCE PROTECTION

- (1) We provide you with "Negative Balance Protection" ("NBP") for your Account. This means that we provide you with a guarantee that your losses can never exceed the total funds in your Trading Account.
- (2) In the event of a negative balance in a retail Client account, the Company will not file a claim against you for that amount, except in cases where you have used illicit methods to create it.

28. QUOTES AND PRICES

- (1) Upon your recorded request to our Dealing Room team for getting a higher or lower figure, in accordance with Terms 28(2) and 28(3), we will quote a higher and lower figure for each Transaction ('our bid and offer prices').
- (2) We will charge you for opening and closing a Transaction as follows:
 - i. The difference between our bid and offer price will comprise the Market Spread (where there is an Underlying Market) and our Spread (being our charge to you); and
 - ii. Unless we notify you in writing to the contrary, you will not be charged any additional Commission.
- (3) You acknowledge that our Spreads, can widen significantly in some circumstances, that they may not be the same size as the examples given in the Assets Section of our website and that there is no limit on how large they may be. You acknowledge that when you close a Transaction, the Spread may be larger or smaller than the Spread when the Transaction was opened. For Transactions transacted when the Underlying Market is closed or in respect of which there is no Underlying Market, the figures that we quote will reflect what we believe the market price in an Instrument is at that time. You acknowledge that such figures will be set by us at our reasonable discretion. The Spread quoted by us will reflect our view of prevailing market conditions.
- (4) You may request a quote to open a Transaction or to close all or any part of a Transaction at any time during our normal hours of trading for the Instrument in respect of which you wish to open or close the Transaction. Outside those hours, we will be under no obligation to but may, at our absolute discretion, provide a quote and accept and act on your offer to open or close a Transaction. We may notify you of certain Instruments in respect of which we will not quote, restrictions on the amount for which we will quote, or other conditions that may apply to our quote, but any such notification will not be binding on us.

- (5) If we choose to provide a quote, we may provide a quote electronically via our Electronic Trading Services or by such other means as we may from time to time notify to you. Our quoting of a higher and lower figure for each Instrument (whether by telephone, Electronic Trading Service, or otherwise) does not constitute an offer to open or close a Transaction at those levels.
- (6) A Transaction will be initiated by you offering to open or close a Transaction in respect of a specified Instrument at the level quoted by us.
- (7) We may, acting reasonably, accept or reject your offer at any time until the Transaction has been executed or we have acknowledged that your offer has been withdrawn. A Transaction will be opened or, as the case may be, closed only when your offer has been received and accepted by us. Our acceptance of an offer to open or close a Transaction, and thus the execution of the Transaction, will be evidenced by our confirmation of its terms to you.
- (8) If we become aware that any of the factors set out below in Term 28(9) are not satisfied at the time you offer to open or close a Transaction, we reserve the right to reject your offer at the level quoted. If we have, nevertheless, already opened or closed a Transaction prior to becoming aware that a factor set out in Term 28(9) has not been met we may, at our discretion, either treat such a Transaction as void from the outset or close it at our then prevailing price. However, we may allow you to open or close the Transaction in which case you will be bound by the opening or closing of such Transaction, notwithstanding that the factors in Term 28(9) were not satisfied.
- (9) The factors referred to in Term 28(8) above include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - i. The quote must be obtained from us as set out in Term 28(8);
 - ii. The quote must not be expressed as being given on an 'indicative only' or similar basis;
 - iii. If you obtain the quote by telephone, it must be given to a person who is a dealer employed by us and your offer to open or close the Transaction must be given during the same telephone conversation in which you obtained the quote;
 - iv. If you obtain the quote electronically via our Electronic Trading Services, your offer to open or close the Transaction, and our acceptance of your offer, must be given while the quote is still valid;
 - v. The quote must not be Manifestly Erroneous;
 - vi. When you offer to open a Transaction, the number of shares, contracts or other units in respect of which the Transaction is to be opened must be neither smaller than the Minimum Size nor larger than the Normal Market Size;
 - vii. When you offer to close part but not all of an open Transaction both the part of the Transaction that you offer to close and the part that would remain open if we accepted your offer must not be smaller than the Minimum Size;
 - viii. A Force Majeure event must not have occurred;
 - ix. When you offer to open a Transaction an Event of Default must not have occurred in respect of you, nor must you have acted in such a way as to trigger an Event of Default;
 - x. The telephone or Electronic Conversation in which you offer to open or close the Transaction must not be terminated before we have received and accepted your offer; And
 - xi. When you offer to open or close any Transaction, the opening of the Transaction must not result in your exceeding any credit or other limit placed on your dealings.
- (10) We reserve the right to refuse any offer to open or close a Transaction larger than the Normal Market Size.
- (11) Our quotation for a Transaction equal to or greater than Normal Market Size is not guaranteed to be within any specific percentage of any Underlying Market or related market quotation and our acceptance of your offer may be subject to special conditions and requirements that we will advise to you at the time we accept your offer. We will inform you of the Normal Market Size for a particular Instrument on request.

- (12) If, before your offer to open or close a Transaction is accepted by us, our quote moves to your advantage (for example, if the price goes down as you buy, or the price goes up as you sell) you agree that we may (but do not have to) pass such price improvement on to you. The effect of such action being that the level at which you offer to open or close a Transaction will, upon acceptance by us, be altered to the more favourable price. You acknowledge that it is in your best interests for us to alter the level of your offer in the manner contemplated in this Term and you agree that any offer altered in accordance with this Term, once accepted by us, results in a fully binding agreement between us. It is at our complete discretion as to when we will pass on a price improvement to you, but you should note that we will generally only pass on a price improvement when the market you are trading is volatile. You should also note that we will only pass on a price improvement within allowable limits, and we reserve our right set out in Term 28(8) to reject any offer by you to open or close a Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, this Term does not permit us to alter your offer price if to do so would result in your opening or closing (as the case may be) a Transaction at a less favourable price than your offer.

29. ORDERS

- (1) We may, at our absolute discretion, accept an "Order" from you. An Order is an offer to open or close a Transaction if our price moves to, or beyond, a level specified by you. Examples of such Orders are:
- i. A Stop Order, which is an instruction to deal if our quote becomes less favourable to you and which is generally used to provide some risk protection;
 - ii. A Limit Order, which is an instruction to deal if our quote becomes more favourable to you;
 - iii. A Market Order, which is an instruction to deal now in a specified size at the best available price for that size;
 - iv. A Contingent Order, which refers to a pair of orders stipulating that if one order is executed, then the other order will be automatically entered into; And
 - v. A One Cancels the Other Order, which refers to a pair of orders stipulating that if one order is executed, then the other order will be automatically cancelled, and which might be used to provide some risk protection.
- (2) You may specify that an Order is to apply:
- i. Until the next close of business day for the relevant Underlying Market (a "Day Order"), which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include any overnight trading sessions on the Underlying Market;
 - ii. For an indefinite period (a "Good Till Cancelled Order" or "GTC Order"), which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include any overnight trading sessions on the Underlying Market.
- (3) We may, at our absolute discretion, accept standing Orders that will apply for some other specified duration. We may act on any such Order irrespective of the length of time for which the specified level in relation to that order is reached or exceeded. For the avoidance of doubt, all unspecified orders will be treated as good until cancelled orders as that term is generally understood by the market.
- (4) If your Order is triggered, we will seek to open/close the Transaction to which your Order relates, acting in accordance with our duty of best execution. In the case of a Stop Order, we will seek to open/close a Transaction at a level that is the same (but may be worse) than your stop level; and in the case of a Limit Order, we will seek to open/close a Transaction at a level that is the same or better than your limit. You acknowledge and agree that the time and level at which Orders are executed will be determined by us, acting reasonably.

- (5) By using our Orders, you expressly acknowledge and agree that:
- i. It is your responsibility to understand how an Order operates before you place any such Order with us and that you will not place an Order unless you fully understand the terms and conditions attached to such Order;
 - ii. Whether or not we accept an Order is at our absolute discretion. Not all Orders are available on all Transactions, nor on all Electronic Trading Services;
 - iii. When you place, and we accept an Order you are trading with us as principal and not dealing on the Underlying Market;
 - iv. The triggering of your Order is linked to our bid and offer prices, not the bid and offer prices on the Underlying Market. Our bid and offer prices may differ from the bid and offer prices in the Underlying Market. The effect of such is that (i) your Order may be triggered even though our bid, or offer as the case may be, moved to or through the level of your Order for only a short period; and (ii) the Underlying Market never traded at the level of your Order;
 - v. For the purposes of determining whether an Order has been triggered, we will be entitled (but not obliged), at our discretion, to disregard any prices quoted by us during any pre-market, post-market or intra-day auction periods in the relevant Underlying Market, during any intra-day or other period of suspension in the relevant Underlying Market, or during any other period that in our reasonable opinion may give rise to short-term price spikes or other distortions;
 - vi. Following your Order being triggered, we do not guarantee that a Transaction will be opened/closed, nor do we guarantee that if opened/closed it will be done so at your specified stop level or limit;
 - vii. We reserve the right both to work and to aggregate Orders. Working an Order may mean that your Order is executed in tranches at different prices, resulting in an aggregate opening or closing level for your Transaction that may differ both from your specified level and from the price that would have been attained if the Order had been executed in a single tranche. Aggregating an Order means that we combine your Order with the Orders of other Clients of ours for execution as a single Order. We may do this only if we reasonably believe it is unlikely to work overall to the disadvantage of any Client whose order is to be aggregated. However, the effect of aggregation may work to your disadvantage in relation to any particular Order. You acknowledge and agree that we shall not under any such circumstances have any liability to you as a result of any such working or aggregation of your Orders;
 - viii. You accept that under certain trading conditions including but not limited to highly volatile markets it may be impossible for us to execute your Transactions. Under such conditions we reserve the right to execute your orders at the next best price irrespective of the fact that this may be more or less favourable to you.
 - ix. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any stop loss/take profit, entry stop, or entry limit orders attached to your expiring contract underlying your CFD or Spread Bet Order before it is rolled over will be adjusted to symmetrically (point-for-point) reflect the price differences between the expiring contract underlying your original CFD or Spread Bet Order as at its expiration date and the rolling over (new) contract underlying your CFD or Spread Bet Order.

29.1. Opening a Transaction

- (1) You will open a Transaction by 'buying' or 'selling'. In this Agreement a Transaction that is opened by 'buying' is referred to as a 'Buy' and may also, in our dealings with you, be referred to as 'long' or 'long position'; a Transaction that is opened by 'selling' is referred to as a 'Sell' and may also, in our dealings with you, be referred to as 'short' or 'short position'.

- (2) When you open a Buy, the Opening Level will be the higher figure quoted by us for the Transaction (ASK price) and when you open a Sell, the Opening Level will be the lower figure quoted by us for the Transaction (BID price).
- (3) A Transaction must always be made for a specified number of lots, contracts or other units that constitute the underlying Instrument.
- (4) Each Transaction opened by you will be binding on you notwithstanding that by opening the Transaction you may have exceeded any credit or other limit applicable to you or in respect of your dealings with us.

29.2. Closing a Transaction

29.2.1. Undated Transactions

- (1) Subject to this Agreement you may close an open Undated Transaction or any part of such open Undated Transaction at any time.
- (2) When you close an Undated Transaction, the Closing Level will be, if you are closing an Undated Buy Transaction, the lower figure quoted by us and if you are closing an Undated Sell Transaction, the higher figure quoted by us.

29.2.2. Expiry Transactions

- (1) Subject to this Agreement you may close an open Expiry Transaction or any part of such open Expiry Transaction at any time prior to the Last Dealing Time for that Instrument.
- (2) Details of the applicable Last Dealing Time for each Instrument will normally be available to you and may be obtained from us on request. It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the Last Dealing Time or, as the case may be, the expiry time for a particular product.
- (3) When you close an Expiry Transaction prior to the Last Dealing Time for the Instrument, the Closing Level will, if the Transaction is a Buy, be the lower figure then quoted by us and if the Transaction is a Sell, the higher figure then quoted by us.
- (4) If you do not close an Expiry Transaction in respect of an Instrument on or before the Last Dealing Time then, subject to Term 29.2.(5) below, we will close your Expiry Transaction as soon as we have ascertained the Closing Level of the Expiry Transaction. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the Last Dealing Time and of any Spread that we may apply when you close an Expiry Transaction.
- (5) We may accept standing instructions from you to automatically roll over all of your Expiry Transaction(s) to the next contract period, so that they do not automatically expire. Alternatively, you may ask that we accept roll instructions in respect of a specific Expiry Transaction. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the next applicable contract period for a Transaction and that effecting the rollover of a Transaction may result in you incurring losses on your account. Any agreement as to roll over is entirely at our discretion and we reserve the right to refuse to rollover a Transaction or Transactions, despite any instruction you have given us, if we determine, acting reasonably, that to effect a rollover would result in you exceeding any credit or other limit placed on your dealings with us. Where we do effect a rollover, the original Expiry Transaction will be closed at or just prior to the Last Dealing Time and become due for settlement and a new Expiry Transaction will be created; such closing and opening trades will be on our normal terms.

30. EXECUTION OF ORDERS: BEST EXECUTION PRINCIPLE

- (1) Orders shall be executed in accordance with the information contained in the Assets Section on our website. When executing your orders, we shall adhere to our duty of Treating Customers Fairly.

- (2) As per the Applicable Laws and Regulations, we take all sufficient steps to obtain the best possible result when executing your order. In our Order Execution Policy, we describe the process which we follow in seeking to achieve Best Execution for you. With regard to Retail Clients, the best possible result is determined in terms of the total consideration, representing the price of the CFD or Spread Bet in the underlying Financial Instrument and the costs related to execution, which shall include all expenses incurred by you which are directly related to the execution of the order, including execution venue fees, clearing and settlement fees and any other fees paid to third parties involved in the execution of the order.
- (3) With respect to execution of your orders we take into account, inter alia, the factors of costs, speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size, nature and any other consideration relevant to the execution of the order.
- (4) We are a principal in the CFDs and Spread bets that you trade for which we offer prices and act as your only execution venue for CFDs and Spread bets. As principal, we aim to consistently achieve the best possible result for you so that this result is at least the same as could be achieved on other venues. We use independent price sources and liquidity providers in order to derive and benchmark our Prices.
- (5) We are your counterparty to each trade for the CFD and Spread Betting trading and we therefore draw your attention to the fact that once you open a position with us, you will have to transact with us to close the position. Therefore, you cannot close the position with another company which may provide different pricing or transfer your position to such party firm. Where you trade in CFDs and Spread bets with a fixed expiry, you will be subject to our pricing arrangements at the expiry of the derivative contract, including our rollover arrangements into new contracts.
- (6) The Orders which may be placed on each Electronic Trading Platform and the terms applicable to your trading activity with us are set out in the Order Execution Policy in respect of each Electronic Trading Platform on which you trade with us.

- (2) Always acting reasonably, we may decline, entirely or in part, any placed order, in case you do not possess sufficient funds or margin for executing the specific Transaction within the purpose of preventing any possible breach of the Applicable Laws and Regulations.
- (3) In specific limited cases, such as a Force Majeure incident or cases where such data is temporarily unavailable e.g. where prices on the underlying Financial Instruments are not available or Orders are placed outside of Business Hours, or at times where sharp movements in the market make it difficult to determine relevant market prices, or where your orders are placed outside of the relevant trading hours of the underlying Financial Instrument and our Business Hours, we may deviate from the procedure for Price determination set out in this Agreement.

30.2. Currency

- (1) All Transactions are settled in the Quoted currency, unless agreed otherwise by both parties. Once a closure of a CFD or Spread Bet position is executed, any resulting equity will be converted and returned to you in your Account currency. Such a conversion may be charged for a specific fee.

30.3. Minimum and Maximum trade sizes

- (1) Under no obligation, we retain the right, at our own discretion, to set limits in order to monitor your capacity to execute specific orders. Under specific circumstance we may require you to limit the number of your current open positions and falls under your responsibility to always be informed of our Company's minimum or maximum trade sizes and request by us for any details regarding any maximum or minimum trade sizes.

- (2) The abovementioned set of trading limits may, at our own discretion, be amended, increased, decreased, removed or included by us and consist of the following:
 - i. Monitoring of maximum order amounts and maximum order sizes;

- (2) Non-market Orders may be cancelled via the Electronic Trading System. We can only cancel your orders, if you explicitly request so, and provided that we have not acted up to the time of your request upon those instructions. Executed instructions may only be withdrawn or amended by you with our consent. We shall have no liability for any claims, losses, damages, costs or expenses, including legal fees, arising directly or indirectly out of the failure of such order to be cancelled.

30.5. Confirmations and Errors

- (1) Information on your order(s) status, cash position, equity and margin level and other Trade Confirmations will be sent to you inside your platform's trading account. In case an Order was placed verbally, our Dealing Room team shall confirm via phone the placement of the Order and once you log into your trading account, you should be able to view the Trade Confirmation.
- (2) You are obliged to provide the Company with e-mail address for the purposes of this Paragraph. It is your responsibility to inform the Company of any change to your email address (or any other relevant personal information), the non-receipt of a Confirmation, or whether any Confirmations are incorrect before settlement.
- (3) The Company will provide you with a Trade Confirmation in respect of each Order, in the method specified above in Term 29 'Orders'.
- (4) You are responsible for reviewing trade confirmations, your cash position and equity and margin level ensuring their accuracy and consistency and determining at your sole and entire discretion the actions you will take. We shall, on your request, provide you with such clarifications or explanations as may be reasonably required explaining any trade confirmation as well as your cash position, Equity and Margin Level. None of these clarifications or information we provide should be construed or interpreted to comprise any form of recommendation or advice on action you should or should not take.

- (5) If you have a reason to believe that the Confirmation is inconsistent or if you do not receive any Confirmation (though the Transaction was made), you shall contact the Company immediately in writing. In the absence of manifest error, Trade Confirmations shall be deemed conclusive unless the Client notifies the Company in writing to the contrary within two (2) Business Days following the Day of receipt of the said Trade Confirmation.
- (6) We reserve the right to, without your consent, either void from the outset or amend the terms of any Transaction containing or based on any error that we reasonably believe to be obvious or palpable (a 'Manifest Error' or 'Manifestly Erroneous Transaction'). If, in our discretion, we choose to amend the terms of any such Manifestly Erroneous Transaction, the amended level will be such level as we reasonably believe would have been fair at the time the Transaction was entered into. In deciding whether an error is a Manifest Error we shall act reasonably, and we may take into account any relevant information including, without limitation, the state of the Underlying Market at the time of the error or any error in, or lack of clarity of, any information source or pronouncement upon which we base our quoted prices. Any financial commitment that you have entered into or refrained from entering into in reliance on a Transaction with us will not be taken into account in deciding whether or not there has been a Manifest Error.
- (7) In the absence of our fraud, willful default or negligence, we will not be liable to you for any loss, cost, claim, demand or expense following a Manifest Error (including where the Manifest Error is made by any information source, commentator or official on whom we reasonably rely).
- (8) If a Manifest Error has occurred and we choose to exercise any of our rights, and if you have received any monies from us in connection with the Manifest Error, you agree that those monies are due and payable to us and you agree to return an equal sum to us without delay.

- (5) Partners are receiving remuneration on the basis of a percentage of the spread, a fixed fee and/or based on any other method agreed with them (for more details, please refer to the Remuneration Policy of the Company), provided the provisions of Applicable Laws and Regulations with respect to conflicts of interest are adhered to. Details of any such remuneration or sharing arrangement are not explicitly set out on the relevant Settlement/Trade Confirmations. We may, upon reasonable request, to the extent possible and at our sole discretion, disclose to you the amount of any such commission, mark-up, mark-down or any other remuneration paid by us to any Associate, Business Introducer or other third party.
- (6) In addition, you should note that not all charges are represented in monetary terms and may appear, for instance, in pips; therefore, you need to ensure that you understand the cost that the pip amounts to.

31.2. Swap Free Accounts

- (1) We offer the possibility to open Swap-free Accounts with us. Accordingly, in all instances where a request for a Swap-free Account is filed with us, we reserve the right to require an adequate justification for and/or proof of the necessity or need of any such conversion. Furthermore, we reserve the right upon our sole and absolute discretion to refuse the processing of any such request for any reason whatsoever, without being obliged to provide any explanation or justification and such decision shall be decisive and undisputable for the Client.
- (2) While a Client may file a request for a Swap-free trading account at any time, the filing of any such request entails that all of such Client's other real trading Accounts with us will be converted into Swap-free trading accounts also, without any further notice being required. Conversion of a real trading Account to a Swap-free trading account is performed by our Back-Office Department only upon the request and consent of those Clients who complete and submit a request for a Swap-free Account. - (4) Where you have a Swap Free Account, you are obliged to close any open CFD position within 7 (seven) calendar days of opening thereof.
